The local chapter of Eastern Star will give an entertainment and dance at Union Hall on Armstice Day. Miller's orchestra, which created a sensation at Rio Nido during the summer season has been engaged to furnish music for the affair which will be one of the most attractive dates of the early winter calendar. A delightful program is in preparation and the personnel of all committees assures the success of the Armstice day observance. Bazaar features and a supper will add to the interest of the evening and also add to the building improvement fund, in which the ladies of the fraternal order are now keenly interested.

Sonoma Families Represented

Pioneers' Annual Gathering Attended by the Daughters of Distinguished Old Settlers of Sonoma

At the annual meeting of the Pioneer Society of Sonoma County at Santa Rosa last Saturday SonomaValley was represented by the daughters of three distinguished pioneer families, Mrs. Henry Wicker, daughter of the late Major E. Rufus, Mrs. Lulu Emparan, daughter of General M. G. Vallejo and Mrs. Amelia Bates, daughter of the late Louis Adler.

Major Ernst Rufus received his early military training in Europe, being one of the famous Swiss Guards. After he came to the United States and to California, he was at once commissioned an officer in the Mexican army, this state at that time being Mexican territory. He participated in many engagements and was given by the Mexican government a 17000 acre land grant in Northern Sonoma county known as the Grant de German. Later he trained 100 Indians for military service for General Sutter and the Indians proved good soldiers and were used for many expiditions by the General who warmly commended Major Rufus service.

Major Rufus and a partner were at one time the lesses of old Fort Ross and engaged in farming on a big scale, Indians working for their keep and such things as tobacco and beads bought here in Sonoma at the store of Louis Adler.

The potatoes grown at Fort Ross were stored in the old Russian church there but Major Rufus and his partner could find no market for them, owing to the difficulty of transportation. In the early fifties, Rufus returned to his ranch near Sonoma where his son, Otto was born and continues to reside. Mrs. Wicker, the daughter, who attended the Pioneer's meeting was also born here.

Lulu Vallejo Emparan, when called on for a speech at Saturday's gathering, reminded the many pioneers present that they knew as much or more than herself the part played by her father, General Vallejo in the founding of Sonoma and the upbuilding of California. Mrs. Emparan annually honors the Society with her presence at their meetings and contributes vocal numbers to the entertainment of our county pioneers.

Mrs. Amelia Bates, whose cousin is secretary of the pioneer organization, responded to a request for a speech and told of her father, Louis Adler, Sonoma's wealthy pioneer merchant, who came here in 1846 and opened two stores, one at Embarcadero ond one here in Sonoma. He was a wholesale and retail dealer in prints, merinoes, lawn, muslin, hose, gloves, shawls, ready-made clothing, blankets, fancy articles and groceries. His store was on Vallejo street opposite Cooper's old hotel. He was one of the first officials and councilmen of Sonoma.

The following account of the meeting appeared in the Santa Rosa Republican:

More than 100 Sonoma county pioneers were present Saturday afternoon at the banquet and meeting held in Native Sons' hall when a program of community singing, addresses, instrumental music, and reminiscent stories of pioneer days was given.

Among the oldest pioneers present at this, the annual meeting, were John S. Taylor, 94, president of the Sonoma County Pioneers' association; Alexander Sawyer, 93; Mrs. Abigail Tryon, 94, and Mrs. P.E. Reynolds, 98, known as 'Aunt Polly."

The program consisted of addresses by Judge J. A. Barham, and Judge John T. Campbell; pioneer stories by Samuel Burrington and Victor Piezzi; reading by "Aunt Polly" Reynolds; recitations by seven-year-old Claire Heine; vocal solo by Mrs. L. V. Emparan; reading of an original poem by Mrs. Hogehoom; a story by Mr. Patton; remarks by Mrs. Ada Kyle Lynch of Healdsburg; a talk by the Rev. C. R. Drake; recitation by Mrs. Emma Kennedy; a poem by W. Saunders; a vocal duet, 'My Old Kentucky Home' sung by Mr. and Mrs. William Shaw, and a few words from W. J. McClure, president of the Borrowed Time Club.

Mrs. Polly Reynolds of Healdsburg who attended the meeting in company with Mrs. Ada Kyle Lynch and Miss Amanda Gallaway, stated that at the age of 98 she felt "spry" and was here to chaperone Mrs. Lynch and Miss Gallaway as well as to attend the meeting.

Otto Gericke and sons, Bertrand and Otto, Jr., were welcome visitors here from Sebastopol recently.

COUNTY RAIDS YIELD 500,000 GALLONS OF WINE

The largest seizure of liquor since prohibition went into effect was made during a series of raids in Sonoma and Napa counties Saturday, when 14 wineries were taken over and more than 500,000 gallons of wine seized.

The raids were made at Healdsburg Oakville, Windsor, Cloverdale and Mc Cray's station, it was announced. In each case, according to prohibition agents, the raids were made following the obtaining of evidence that the wineries were selling liquor illegally.

Wineries seized were: Andrew Frei, Chas. Sarganti and L. Sargenti Healdsburg; J. S. Azevedo, Windsor; Jennie Brovirilli and A. Bassetti, Rutherford Nate Giachello, A. Reigner, Andy Barthoucci, and Leslie Brisbin of Oakville. Louis Perazzo, W. W. Furber, Cloverdale; Otto McCray, Joe Kovich, Carl Francchia, McCrays station.

MORE CHALK DEPOSITS TO BE MINED

Contract Is Signed to Open Up This Industry at the Jack London Ranch In Glen Ellen.

A contract was signed last week by the Oakland concern mining the clay deposits on the Goldstein ranch which will give the company the right to open up the industry at the London ranch where exceptionally fine deposits of the chalk have been uncovered. At least two big hills of the substance known as dimotaceous earth will be mined on the Glen Ellen property and shipments will begin within 30 days.

A number of local workmen are employed in the new industry.

Mrs. Margaret Gilbert, who has resided in Sonoma since the death of her husband, the late William Gilbert, of a pioneer family, has decided to return to San Francisco and will make that city her future home. Mrs. Gilbert for some time was the accommodating counter assistant at the Dutil Bakery on Broadway.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church will hold a sale of home cooked food at the church parlors on Saturday afternoon, Oct. 21, beginning at 1 o'clock p. m.

WORLD TRAVELER AT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

W. C. Pearce of World's Sunday School to Make Address at Union Services Tomorrow at 10 a. m.

W. C. Pearce, noted speaker and traveling member of the World's Sunday School Association, who has just returned from an eight months' tour of the world and intensive study of conditions in the Near East, will speak in Sonoma tomorrow morning at the Congregational church. A union service of both M. E. and Congregational churches has been arranged by President F. Edrington of the Sonoma County Sunday School Association who was instrumental in getting Mr. Pearce for three meetings in Sonoma county Sunday, Oct. 8th, the only date the world traveler could be secured.

Pearce has been all through the zone where trouble with the Turks has created world wide interest and is well acquainted with the situation and its complexities. He will, no doubt, throw much light upon the Christian-Mohammedan struggle which has come to a crisis in the Near East.

DANCE AT MERVYN HOTEL TONIGHT

With an orchestra said to be par excellence, the Mervyn Hotel at Glen Ellen will give its big Saturday night dance tonight. The Bay Novelty Orchestra is in a jazz class by itself and should draw big. Mine host Buck's hospitality is known far and wide.

AT THE HIPPODROME

Said to be a tremendous picture, with many big punches, Cecil B. DeMille's new Paramount production, Manslaughter, will be the feature at the Hippodrome Theatre in Napa on next Thursday and Friday, October 19th and 20th. The story deals with the idle rich and has much appeal. Thomas Meighan, Paramount star, Leatrice Joy and Lois Wilson are seen in the principal roles.

Mr. and Mrs. Felton are the happy parents of a nine pound baby boy, born last week. Dr. Hays was the attending physician.

Several carloads of grapes have been shipped to New York via the S. P. The Signorelli vineyard crop has been sold to Sam Sebastiani, who is the shipper.

Several of our prominent leading Democrats motored to Santa Rosa Tuesday evening to hear the Democratic nominee for governor speak. Woolwine is making a whirlwind campaign throughout the state.

The S. P. is considering starting work on an extension to the present side track at El Verano, making the track long enough to hold 75 or 80 cars, to overcome the congestion, which has been a menace at this busy railroad center.

Within the last month three of our charming El Verano girls have wed. There are a number of bachelors in El Verano, who, if they don't hurry up, will be overtaken by old age. Let one of them start the ball rolling and others may follow.

William Sherman, former El Verano native who attended the Sonoma high school, is a candidate for grand master of the California Masonic lodge, which is holding its convention in San Francisco this week. He is now deputy grand master.

A large number of our party,going people will attend the ball at Agua Caliente Springs this evening. Fine dance music will be furnished by the Del Beach Orchestra of Vallejo and a good time is looked forward to, as mine host Tom Corcoran's parties are popular. Many out-of-town guests will be present.

The readers of the Index-Tribune were pleased to read in last week's issue of the appointment of Conductor John Laux of the N. W. P. to the position of trainmaster. His many Sonoma Valley friends, including the writer, who was formerly his schoolmate, extend congratulations. John, when a boy, was interested in railroading and spent his hours after school practicing on the trains in the Sonoma railroad yards. His success as a railroad man was forecasted when he paddled around in short pants.

Politics, in ElVerano, on the outcome of the state and county November general election, are warming up. The wise politicians are beginning to pick the winners. The fight for governor is interesting, while Hiram Johnson, California's greatest United States senator, is being picked as a 100 to 1 shot. Emmet Seawell, Sonoma county's judge, it is predicted, will sweep California for associate justice of the supreme court with a much bigger lead than he had at the primaries over his three opponents. The main issue of the county campaign is the re-election of Hoke Smith, who has served two terms as assessor and has made good. Friends of Smith here are rallying to his support and promise to put him over with one of the greatest majorities a county official ever received.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Attention Ford Owners!

Ford parts, like almost everything else worth while, are counterfeited. Imitation parts are manufactured to SELL at the highest possible rate of profit and the grades of steel used are consequently not the same high quality, specially heat-treated alloy steels specified in Ford formulas for the manufacture of GENUINE FORD PARTS.

Don't be misled—Insist upon GENUINE FORD PARTS made by the Ford Motor Company. By so doing you will get from 35 to 100 per cent more wear from them, and you will pay the lowest possible cost—the same everywhere.

50% OF GENUINE FORD PARTS RETAIL FOR LESS THAN 10c EACH

When your Ford car, or Fordson tractor needs attention, call on us. For remember we are properly equipped, employ competent mechanics, and use Genuine Ford and Fordson parts in all repair work.

JUDGE SMALL'S PATH CROSSED BY CHINAMAN

If you are doubtful about the modern meaning of the word "nemesis," ask Judge Small, local justice and automobile enthusiast. Judge Small was pursued by his nemesis down in Vallejo not long ago, where he had gone for a quiet joy ride with his friends, Bert Kerner, Ernie Coates and Tom Harris. The Judge will tell you that nemesis is masculine, of Chinese nationality, and that said nemesis crossed his path twice while in the navy yard town. Bert Kerner was at the wheel of the Chevrolet and in negotiating a cross street, almost ran over a Chink. The Chinaman resented the fact that he had to step lively for the Sonoma motorists and took a good look at all of them. With astute perception he seemed immediately to recognize the judicial brow of the Judge, for the wily Chinee know judicial brows instinctively, for the Chinese lottery has brought Ah Sin into court more than once. Judge Small says he never saw the Vallejo Chink before, but the Chink evidently made up his mind to see the Judge again or start a tong war against the driver of that Chevrolet. The Sonoma motorists had not gone many more blocks in the city of Vallejo when in rounding a corner they almost ran over the same Chinaman. Can you beat it? Bert Kerner says it was a jinx. Coates says it was deucedly clever, you know, the way they tried to avoid the blooming Oriental and couldn't. Tom Harris says it was rich, and Judge Small says he now knows what the ancients meant by nemesis.

CALLED FOR GRAND JURY DUTY

Louis P. Kearney, the lumber dealer, and tomato grower of El Verano, was called on the venire for grand jury duty during 1922, as was also Frank Wedekind, the vineyardist and owner of the former Hopke acreage.

Nine of the 30 jurors called were women, the first time in the history of Sonoma county women have been summoned for grand jury duty.

Garry Stock has been in town from Los Angeles. Mrs. Stock and three children will shortly join him in the north. Mrs. Stock was formerly Georgie Andrews, niece of Mrs. Frederick Loix.

TANGLED AFFAIRS OF NEWSPAPER CONTINUED

When the case of Hose vs. Watters, involving the tangled affairs of the Sonoma Expositor-Forum was called on the court calendar last week by Judge Thompson, it was again continued. For many weeks since the concern went into the hands of a receiver, expert accountants have endeavored to balance the books and determine the amount of money coming out of the business to O. L. Hose, who alleges that his partner, Henry Watters, since 1917 had appropriated over $3000, greatly exceeding the proportion to which he was entitled. An accounting was ordered by the court. Watters sought to make an accounting, but it was not acceptable to the plaintiff, Hose, whereupon the latter undertook to have the books experted. As the job had not yet been completed at the calling of the calendar Friday of last week, plaintiff's attorneys asked for a further continuance. Some startling revelations are promised.

ATTEND CALIFORNIA INDUSTRIES EXPOSITION

More than 30,000 persons have witnessed the great industrial exposition being held at the Civic Auditorium, October 7 to 28. Hours before the opening time last Saturday, throngs filled Civic Center and congested the traffic for several blocks.

The exposition was formally opened by Mayor James C. Rolph and Manager A. A. Tremp, who set in motion the hundreds of wheels of industry which are actually producing articles within the booths.

In addition to the excellent and interesting working exhibits by the manufacturers, the entertainment program is proving the greatest drawing card of the show. Eddie Hearne, famous racing pilot, and Harry Casteel, motorcycle king, stage their famous leap of death within a 17 foot steel cake every afternoon and evening.

Cassasa's municipal band plays during the afternoon and evening in addition to Uda Waldrop, municipal organist, and a score of well known singers and entertainers, making the daily program replete with attractions.

HOLSTEINS LEAD

The Jersey folks said Sonoma and Marin counties were most interested in Jerseys, and the Holstein, Guernsey and Ayreshire folks each also felt their particular breed was the best adapted to this section. Of the 68 sales reported, 25 are Holstein, 17 Guernseys, 16 Jerseys, 8 Ayreshires and 2 Shorthorns.

C. L. Hughes, secretary of the California Holstein Breeders Association is in these counties this week explaining to the dairymen why they should take advantage of this plan and buy good pure bred bulls. H. A. Mathieson of the U. S. Dairy Division is also aiding in presenting the merits of the pure bred bull nad urging the dairymen to get their bulls under this plan. Prof. Gordon H. True, head of the Animal Husbandry Department of the U. of C., will be in the county for the same purpose next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ramelli and family left for their future home in Oakland Saturday. They had resided in Sonoma Valley many years and leave a large circle of friends here who wish them success and happiness in their new home.

The Ramelli dairy ranch of over 80 acres was sold to D. R. Stewart, formerly of Lakeville.

Rev. C. C. Champlin is to occupy the pulpit at the Congregational Church during the absence of Rev. Isaac Cookman. Mr. Champlin who retired from the ministry to engage in the dairy business, can also fill the pulpit with credit and distinction. He is an earnest speaker and a divine of travel and university education.

ORPHEUM CIRCUIT HAS A PROUD RECORD

The great Orpheum circuit of theaters, whose ramificatations and affiliations spread over fifteen states and the western part of Canada, is about to celebrate the anniversary of a third of a century of unparalled progress and achievement at San Francisco.

The anniversary date falls on the week commencing Sunday, October 22 and during that seven days, Orpheum theaters north, south, east and west will be resplendent in bunting, gay with flags, vieing with each other in doing honor to the men who have brought this tremendous influence for joy and recreation.

Thirty-three and a third years ago, two young men who were living in San Francisco, Martin Beck and Morris Meyerfiels Jr., conceived the idea of this circuit of theatres; today the greatest amusement enterprise of its kind, in the minds and lives of tens of millions of American theatregoers.

Little Margaret Rubke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Rubke has been quite sick the past week with Dr.Hays in attendance. Her aunt, Miss Henrietta Weber has been with her, being on a visit to her Vineburg relatives. Miss Weber is an office assistant to a prominent physician in San Francisco.

THEY ARE NOT FALLING FOR IT

Republicans are not falling for the two tricks promulgated by the followers of the Democratic donkey to confuse voters and try to steal the governorship of California in November. In the first place, few Republicans, however "wet," swallow the wine and beer bait put out by Woolwine. The people know that the Democrats realized that a wet platform was the Bourbons only hope and its object is so obvious that it fools no one. Those who would welcome sentiment tending to make less drastic our national prohibition laws realize thoroughly that neither Woolwine sentiment nor Woolwine himself can accomplish an iota of relief. California will register its true sentiment on the prohibition question through its vote on the Wright Act. By no possible chance can the governorship outcome be construed to express California's feeling on the wet and dry issue.

Woolwine's defeat will not be a dry victory. It will be the repudiation of his trickery. It will register the sentiment of California for the Richardson economy and efficiency which is to supplant the political orgy of spending at Sacramento. It will be proof that Republicanism is paramount and that its standard-bearer has the entire confidence of the electorate of California.

The Democratic pen stabbers who have been capitalizing the little squabble between the Republican State Committee and Friend Richardson into gigantic proportions will find themselves mute, inglorious Miltons after November 7th. No one is falling for the discordant chatter of these news-mongers.

Johnson's majority will be all the bigger and Richardson's majority the greater triumph at the coming election, for Republicans up and down the state have their eyes wide open to the clumsy attempt to disrupt the party by false issues and misrepresentation. Voters have already gone on record for Richardson's economy in state politics. They have already acclaimed Senator Johnson their choice for United States senator.

When the votes are counted next month, the futility of donkey tricks will be amply demonstrated and the donkey can lie down and sleep amid the wreck of the political machine put out of business by Friend W. Richardson. The machine is headed for the scrap heap that is certain, and neither beer, wine, Wool nor pull can save it.

ALL THEY NEED IS MORE RIGHT—NOT WRIGHT

We are surprised that the Petaluma press still confesses to bootleggers. Has there not been laws passed and repassed there, little and big Volstead Acts, trials, arrests and what-nots? Have a heart, Brother Olmstead, and admit with the Index-Tribune that you cannot legislate people into sobriety or do away with liquor so long as there is a demand for it. Education, not laws, will cut down demand and create temperance which is the to-be-desired condition of the human race. Laws and police cannot accomplish sobriety.

ROUTE OF NEW HIGHWAY TO PETALUMA

Supervisor Fred Lowell has been besieged with inquiries the past week as to just what route the new highway to be built toward Petaluma with take. The supervisors decided to build 3.5 miles of road from Broadway, Sonoma, toward Petaluma and it is said to be their intention to route the new highway over the Hopke bridge along the road surveyed and improved during Highway Engineer Aldrich's term of office and originally designated as part of the Class B road to be built from the county highway bond issue at that time. Concrete bridges and culverts were put in and the road graded, but aside from that little was done.

The new improvement is to follow up the work done then and would extend on a little beyond the Cheney ranch.

Objection to this route and agitation of the improvement for the road over the new Cooper bridge to a point near the Watmaugh school house has been started by property owners who claim they have the more feasible route of the two. Supervisor Lowell is giving careful consideration to the matter.

The Misses Cummings, of Eureka, who are attending the Munson School for Private Secretaries, were up over the week end visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Keiser. Mrs Will Cummings has been here for several weeks while her husband, the N. W. P. official has been busy on this end of the line, apportioning grape cars to the shippers.

LAWYERS' BILL MAKES SERVICE A NEW CRIME

VIGOROUS CAMPAIGN LAUNCHED AGAINST ADOPTION.

Declaring that the Lawyers Bill, Proposition Number 24 on the ballot, would transform into a crime an essential service now placed freely at the disposal of the public by business men, the Public Rights Committee of Northern California has launched a vigorous campaign against adoption of the measure in November.

With Marshall Hale, San Francisco merchant, as chairman the Public Rights Committee was formed to oppose the act which is described as an attempt to create a monopoly for lawyers in California at the expense of the public.

The committee is made up of representative business and professional men and includes presidents of numerous real estate boards. On the Executive Committee are: Chas. Helser, manager West Coast Life Insurance Co., San Francisco; Chris R. Jones, Sacramento Regional Director of the California Real Estate Association; J. F. Chambers, president of the Civil Service Commission, Oakland; John Galen Howard, president, San Francisco Architects Association; Colbert Coldwell, president San Francisco Real Estate Board; D. D. Bowman, attorney and president of the Marin County Real Estate Board; B. F. Schlesinger, general manager The Emporium, San Francisco; P. F. Chilcott, manager Western Title Insurance Co., San Jose.

Lawyers' Claim Refuted.

Assertions by lawyers advocating the bill that only a few banks are opposed to its adoption are refuted in a statement issued by the Public Rights Committee which points out that in addition to business men generally nearly fifty realty boards, the California State Federation of Labor and the Legislative Council of the Big Four Railroad Brotherhoods of California are officially opposed to the Lawyers Bill. The statement adds:

"The Lawyers Bill was passed by the legislature in 1921 chiefly through influence of more than forty lawyer members—a third of the total membership. There was no demand whatever for the measure except from some lawyers. Ostensibly designed to prohibit illegal practice of law, the bill in reality is part of a national campaign by lawyers for state laws benefiting the legal profession by creating what amounts to a monopoly for lawyers.

"In connection with the growth of American business there has developed a form of service that lawyers regard as legal. This service consists of advising with and informing customers on commonly known points of business law involved in everyday business transactions. Banks, trust companies, real estate men, insurance agents, notaries, accountants and many others place this service freely at the disposal of the public.

"This service does not involve practicing law and in no way infringes on the special functions of the lawyer, which are thoroughly protected by the courts. It is given free to the people and is a genuine public service, saving money, time and inconvenience. A certain class of attorneys, however, realize that if all this service were prohibited by law and all simple business law matters turned into attorneys' offices, the legal profession would be more lucrative than it is at present.

"Only a certain limited group of lawyers are demanding this legislation. They claim that their intention is simply to prevent certain large banks from practicing law, especially from drawing wills. If prohibition of the drawing of a few wills by a few trust company attorneys had been the real purpose of this measure, it might have been achieved in a simple straightforward bill.

"As written, however, the Lawyers Bill is so wide and vague in its prohibtions that it affects directly all banks, nearly all business and all the public. Not only does it make it a crime for any unlicensed person to practice law, to which there is no valid objection, but it makes it a crime for anyone except a licensed lawyer to practice giving legal advice—conveying the hitherto unheard of assumption that no man except a lawyer is qualified to advise his neighbor.

Makes Service a Crime

"Under present law people are free to choose their advisers; they may consult lawyers or business men as they prefer, and no man is committing a crime when out of his knowledge and experience he aids another. This law would deny people the privilege of choosing their advisers; force them to consult lawyers. And it would transform into a crime a most important branch of the service developed with the growth of business for the benefit of the public.

"Whatever its purpose the actual effect of the Lawyers Bill would be to create a monopoly for lawyers. For them it would be a veritable bonanza. Adoption of the act automatically would disrupt business practices and abolish a service now given the people. It would divert all simple business law matters and business legal service into the offices of attorneys. Thus it would make the profession of the law more lucrative but the fees legislated into lawyers' offices would come from the public pocket."

Thomas Farrell who has been very ill at a San Francisco hospital, underwent a blood transfusion operation, the blood being given by his son Walter. Mr. Farrell is the husband of Mrs. Mary Farrell of The Oaks.

E. O. Hoyer of the Broadway Service Station has taken in a partner, Mr. Pancoast, formerly of Vancouver.

Mrs. Clara Lowell has gone to Los Angeles to spend the winter with her son, Dr. Chas. Lowell and family.

WOULD RESTORE GREEK CHAPEL AT FORT ROSS

State Architect George B. McDougall was in Santa Rosa Sunday and conferred with Senator Herbert Slater concerning some further restoration work which must be carried out in reproducing the old Greek chapel and grounds at Fort Ross in this county which were built by the Russians in 1812.

The appropriation heretofore secured from the state by Senator Slater saved the old chapel from entire dissolution and has restored it so that it is expected it will withstand the winter storms for many years. Timbers have been hewn, not sawed, and delivered on the ground for the restoration of one of the bastions, but the money ran out and further work had to be stopped.

Architect McDougall agrees that if complete restoration is desired that it should be carried out as quickly as possible.

DEATH OF REDMEN'S GRAND OFFICER

Martin Fuetscher, well known in Sonoma as one of the Grand Officers of the Redmen, passed away in San Francisco last week after a lingering illness.

Mr. Fuetscher had often officiated at meetings of the Order here and was well liked for his many splendid traits of character and excellent fraternal record. He was here during the recent Convention and being then in poor health, remained for some weeks afterwards. With his good wife he was a guest at the Union Hotel.

Sonoma friends heard of his death with deep regret and sympathize sincerely with Mrs. Fuetscher in her bereavement.

MAINTENANCE AT BUENA VISTA HIGHEST IN STATE

The per capita cost of maintaining inmates at the various state institutions of California is lowest at the Southern California State Hospital at Patton and highest at the Industrial Farm for Women at Sonoma, according to figures prepared by the State Board of Control and released today.

The figures show that the southern institution, with a population of 2442 spent $575,750.61 the last fiscal year, or $19.75 a month for each inmate. The Industrial Farm for Women had a population of nine at the close of the fiscal year and the total expenditures for the year amounted to $27,518.91, or $509.59 a month for each person enrolled.

Other items in the report included:

Napa State Hospital, 2559 inmates, cost $22.29 a month per capita.

Sonoma State Hospital for Feeble Minded, population 1570, per capita a month $25.10.

Mendocino State Hospital, population 1189, cost a month $23.69 per capita.

S. P. EL VERANO STATION IS IN NEED OF LIGHT

Editor Index-Tribune

Travelers on the S. P. greatly miss the convenience of the well lit station at El Verano these short-growing evenings. They complain of the darkness and trouble of finding baggage and meeting friends and relatives under the new system of curtailment. Since Agent Gale has moved from the depot building, there is no one to operate the electric switch which formerly threw a flood of light in front of the station. The obliging mail carrier, Emil Cornelius, has volunteered to turn night into day if the S. P. will locate the switch where he can tend to it. Patrons of the line are hopeful some arrangements can be made to give strangers the right impression of El Verano being well lit and with enough light so when hubbies return from the city, they will kiss their own wives. Now there is really danger that they'll grab the wrong one.

RED CROSS NURSE REVIEWS SCHOOL WORK

The following report of Red Cross work rendered in the schools under the jurisdiction of the Sonoma branch has been rendered by Miss M. Sacry, visiting nurse, and covers her work from 1921-1922:

School children examined in Sonoma district, 588.

Sonoma children examined, 237.

Defects found—Eyes 38, ears 8, nose 175, throat 150, teeth 180.

Corrections—Eyes 15, ears 4, nose 58, throat 55, teeth 75.

There were 120 children that have had one or more corrections. Eighty-five children were underweight.

To these school children we made 187 home visits, took cultures of 24 children while there was diphtheria in the community and found a carrier. Dental work was started with the school children.

Corrections—Nose and throat 26, teeth 20, eyes 1.

These are the conditions I found upon my second visit to these schools.

This work has been made possible by Red Cross memberships, and in addition, 953 nursing visits to homes in Sonoma county and 642 cases have been handled by the Red Cross nurse. 675 babies have been examined at the clinic of the Santa Rosa chapter and 125 psychological cases been under observation.

In addition to the work done in the schools by the Red Cross visiting nurse, dental work for those unable to afford it is made possible by the appropriation from the sale of the little seals at Christmas time.

In reviewing her work in Sonoma county schools, the Red Cross nurse informed Principal J. F. Prestwood that Sonoma Valley parents take the lead for co-operating with the public health service in seeking to correct defects in school children. Enlarged tonsils and adenoids led the list of defects, with teeth second.

CLUB NOTES

The regular business meeting of the Woman's Club was held Oct. 6th. Many subjects of interest were discussed and plans for the winter accepted. The monthly card parties will be resumed, the first taking place Wednesday, Oct. 25th, headed by a good committee.

An interesting report was read of the meeting held in Petaluma of the county federation of clubs on Sept. 27th. Many subjects of public interest were discussed by the energetic women of the county.

On Nov. 21st the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club will go to Petaluma and entertain the Petaluma Woman's Club, Mrs. Emparan being in charge.

Four hundred dollars was paid toward our indebtedness and with our united effort the remaining $500 will soon be paid off.

There are several prospective new members in view, so the Club will soon reach 125 members.

THE KEY KONTEST

The 'Key Kontest' which was formerly conducted at the Corner Drug Store is temporarily discontinued. If you were interested in the Key Kontest, kindly retain your key until further notice. Our Legal Department wired us to discontinue the kontest for the present time. Nevertheless full particulars will be published as well as the name of the party who registered the complaint. Should the United Drug Co. allow me to use my own judgment in disposing of this silverware, the consensus of opinion among the people of Sonoma Valley is to donate the silverware toward the erection of the new St. Francis church

The telegram and letter which I received are as follows:

Mr. Louis F. Lambert,
Sonoma, California
Dear Mr. Lambert:

Upon receipt of your letter dated Oct. 3, I immediately wired Mr. A. W. Murray, a representative of our Legal Department, in Boston, for his opinion concerning your Key Kontest. He replied to my wire this morning as follows: —Please wire Lambert, Sonoma to engage best local attorney who will arrange for dismissal of prosecution.

The Key Kontest is now entirely out of my hands, it being left to the United Drug Co. to take further action

WANT BENNETT VALLEY ROAD FIXED

Both Sonoma and Santa Rosa are clamoring for repairs to the Bennett Valley road which will be the principal route between here and the county seat during the building of the state highway from Schellville to Santa Rosa.

Now that winter rains have begun a good temporary road is a crying necessity as it will be many months before the paving contract over the main road is completed.

BEN F. BALLARD WILL BE WRITE-IN CANDIDATE

Ben F. Ballard, county superintendent of schools, is to be a write-in candidate for re-election against Miss Louise Clark.

Announcement to this effect was made Thursday by a citizens' pre-organization committee, which includes men and women from practically every section of the county.

Coincidently with the word that Ballard has consented to become a write-in candidate, the names of a large number of school trustees who have already endorsed the coming campaign were announced. It was stated that the list is by no means complete, as many others have already signified their intention of signing Ballard's endorsement. The school trustees, together with principals and superintendents in practically every town in the county will constitute a large part of the completed organization committee.

The citizens' committee, which, it is understood, will form the nucleus for the county-wide committee working for Ballard's re-election has sent the following letter to some 200 school trustees in the county:

"After considering the matter seriously and impartially, many residents of Sonoma county feel that the results of the recent primary election may prove detrimental to the best interests of our schools. The person who was nominated for county superintendent is a newcomer to the state, has had less than two years' experience in the county schools and is teaching under a limited certificate.

There is a growing feeling that the real issues of the campaign were not presented to the voters, many of whom cast their ballots without sufficient information. Furthermore 12,000 voters failed to vote at the primary election, and it is the purpose of the committee to present all issues so completely that the misrepresentations which have been current will lose their force.

Accordingly, a group of interested citizens are offering to serve as an organization committee to conduct a Write-In Campaign for Ben F. Ballard for County Superintendent of Schools. Mr. Ballard is not seeking the office, and has consented to the write-in only upon the urgent persuasion of friends of the schools.

Will you support Mr. Ballard's candidacy and allow your name to be used as a member of the organization committee? If you will, kindly sign and return at once the enclosed card, in order that public education in Sonoma county may continue to progress."
